Dear Friends,

The countdown has started! With February here, we are counting down the days until the first Unbreakable Mantour Conference! While getting a later start this year seems strange, I'm glad for the extra time to prepare. Alongside writing this letter today, I'm also putting the finishing touches on the video content for each Mantour Conference. Meanwhile, Adessa is starting to organize and pack up everything that needs to go with us to each event. (Pray it all fits in the van, LOL).

The Unbreakable book and the Unbreakable 365 Bible Reading Plan books are ordered. All of the advertising materials have been sent. The speakers are excited about preparing their messages, and the host churches are ready. Last week, I talked to one of our host churches about their plans to make the most of this year's Unbreakable/boxing theme. I can't share everything they have planned, but their ideas and enthusiasm blew me away! A few days later, a pastor called and had a great idea to add a little special flavor to the Northeast Mantour Conference. Again, I can't give details, but Wow!

Trust me when I say that you and the men from your church do not want to miss this year's Mantour Conference. Here's a reminder of all the dates and locations for the 2025 Mantours.

Find the one closest to you, and join us for a great morning of fellowship, powerful worship, and challenging and inspiring messages by incredible speakers focused on helping us all become Unbreakable men of God.

I can't wait to see you there! If you have any Rocky or Creed t-shirts, be sure to wear them—Adessa got me a few for Christmas, so I'm wearing mine!

Here are some other exciting things that will be available at the 2025 Mantour Conference:

First, we have our new book, Unbreakable. This book is the result of the Holy Spirit's strong burden on my heart as I've been heartbroken over the past few years to see so many men of God defeated, lying on the mat, with the enemy standing in triumph over them.

This book doesn't just share the truth that it is time to get off the mat and get back in the fight, but it gives practical, Biblical advice about overcoming and becoming an unbreakable man of God.

There was such a powerful anointing when I wrote this book. While I don't say this often because I don't like promoting myself, I genuinely believe that if you follow the principles taught in this book, the Holy Spirit will change your life. As always, study questions and a workbook are in the back so men can work through it individually or as a group. We're excited to see how this resource will change lives!

Another resource we'll be featuring is our Unbreakable 2025 Daily Bible Reading Plan. This year, we've done something really fun for the devotionals. In addition to a guide to reading the Bible daily, and weekly Scriptures about being "Unbreakable" for you to memorize, each devotional is based on a quote about living as an unbreakable man of God. Some of the quotes are from the Bible, some are from historical figures, and of course, there are plenty of quotes from the Rocky and Creed franchises, and there's even a quote from the 1970s television show WKRP in Cincinnati. (You're curious now, aren't you?)

While being unique and fun, each devotional is truly encouraging and challenging, inspiring us to continue running the race of being unbreakable men of God. Written copies will be available at the Mantour Conferences, or men can sign up to get a daily reminder to follow the Bible Reading plan at <https://www.mantourministries.com/bibleplan>.

Here's one more resource we will feature at this year's Mantour Conference: "The You Gotta Fight For Your Right To Purity Table." Seriously, guys, I couldn't resist the name!. Still, as humorous as the name is, it's designed to address a serious topic.

Heading into this Mantour season, the Holy Spirit placed a burden on our hearts to focus on helping men overcome pornography and sexual sin and stay free if they are not involved. Being completely vulnerable, this idea came from hearing the heart-wrenching stories of dear friends whose families were suffering pain and heartache as the result of pornography and sexual sin. As I heard about marriages ending, men leaving young children, and young men trapped in sexual sin, holy anger swept over me, and I knew that God was calling us to help men overcome these devastating sins.

It quickly became apparent that men who wanted help didn't know where to get it. Others who want to stay free aren't aware of resources that will help them keep their commitment. That's why Adessa and I spent many hours over the summer researching ministries dedicated to this topic. We looked over their websites, talked to people who used their services, and even spoke to some of their leaders. The result is the "Fight for Your Right to Purity" table in the lobby where men can find recommended resources and Christian ministries whose mission is helping men overcome.

We also have a surprise for the men who attend the Conferences to help them gain victory. If you want to know what it is, get to your local Mantour Conference!

Over the next few months, we ask that you pray with us about this table. We know that the enemy does NOT want to see men find deliverance and healing. Please pray for each speaker who speaks on this topic. Pray that the booklets will be well received and change men's lives.

Please pray for us as we declare war on this difficult topic, which challenges men to overcome and be unbreakable. Please don't just pray about this today, but remember this request throughout the entire Mantour season. Thank you so much!

Of course, we ask that you pray with us about the upcoming Mantour season. Our goal isn't just for men to attend but for men's lives to be changed. We want to see men saved, healed, and delivered as they choose to get back off the mat of defeat and live as unbreakable men of God. As we pray together, we believe this will happen.

One last area where we need prayer is regarding our finances. In 2025, we're trusting God to provide 20 new supporters—churches, individuals, or businesses—to stand with us in transforming lives for just $100 a month. Will you answer the call?

Act NOW to set up your recurring support by scanning the QR code above or visiting <https://giving.ag.org/donate/700001-428363>.

What better time to become a monthly partner than during Mantour season? Together, we can make an unstoppable difference! Don't miss out—join us today!

Thank you so much for taking the time to see this message. See you at your local Mantour Conference!
